first of all i want to congratulate to the creator of this site.and i have a request to make it more interesting by adding some tradational multani wedding songs,cooking corner,home ramides,and some fashion stuff,knowladge about zodiac signs,tarot reading,and quiz.i m sure this way we can reach to each corner of this world.

i found *shera wichon sher suninda* very intresting but after opening it i couldnt read it due to multani script,so please translate all the things in english also.

regards & best wishes.

I feel this site should carve an image, an identity as distinct and unique for itslef as the Seraiki language itself. While such traditional 'discussion corners' do add some spice in such forums, they also take the websites on a typical path, making them just 'another' site among so many.

However, the Admin would be the best judge. Just a loud thought.
